RESTAURANT TAKEOUT OPTIONS

Mother's Day is Sunday. Just because we're in self-quarantine doesn't mean we're off the hook in treating Mom to a delicious and memorable meal. Here's a short list of restaurants ready to roll out the to-go red carpet and help you say, "we love you, Mom."

Confirm availability of items with the restaurant's website or phone number.

Duck Dive, Pacific Beach: Starting Friday, the beach storefront will offer all-day lunch, dinner and brunch takeout, along with to-go cocktails, canned beers and wines. The menu is available from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. with dishes like the spicy chicken sandwich, made with ancho chili crema, pepper jack cheese and avocado, and cocktails, like the What Day Is It?, a concoction made with Jameson whiskey, blood orange, fresh beet cordial, ginger and bubbles.
